

builder of men

www.FarmHouse.org

since 1905

Did you know?
As FarmHouse men, we count among us Nobel Prize winners, Pulitzer Prize winners, governors, congressmen, entertainers, actors, doctors, lawyers and Hall of Fame football coaches.

Did you know?
More than 40 percent of FarmHouse chapters have been ranked first in grades among men's fraternities on their campuses since Fall of 2000. FarmHouse carries an international grade point average of a 2.97 on a 4.0 scale.

THE UNCOMMON Fraternity

For nearly a century, FarmHouse Fraternity has stood out among the crowd of college Greek-Letter general fraternities. Our name has always set us apart - for it's something our Founders and the 24,000 men who have since followed take great pride in.

Since our founding at the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1905, the Central Objective of FarmHouse has been:

Building the Whole Man -

- Intellectually...* to sharpen the mind
- Spiritually...* to provide the opportunity for spiritual growth
- Socially/Morally...* to develop socially as a gentleman with good moral character
- Physically...* to enhance physical health and well-being.

In today's fast-paced world, FarmHouse remains steadfast to the ideals set forth by our Founders and strives to progress as a values-based fraternity.

SCHOLASTIC Excellence

Our scholastic emphasis is backed by a record showing nearly every FarmHouse chapter at or very near the top scholastically on campus.

At FarmHouse, we believe nothing should stand in the way of your education as we strive to create an atmosphere that promotes scholarship.

- Quiet study rooms
- Chapter mentors
- Study partners
- In-house tutors
- Study skills wkshps
- Time Management
- In-house computers
- Reference materials
- Test file systems
- Incentive programs
- Scholarships

Community Service

Many of our FarmHouse chapters regularly take home the campus community service/involvement awards. FarmHouse men have always taken great pride in organizing and assisting in campus and community-wide service projects.

One shining example of providing a Promise of Service to the community is Nebraska brother Steven Mills. He volunteered last summer as a counselor for Camp Kindle, for kids 7-18 who are infected or affected by HIV/AIDS. "That week has changed my life forever," said Mills. "A fire was kindled within me that has made me more passionate than ever in wanting to help others."

Philanthropies

Many of our chapters organize their own campus-wide philanthropies each year. Here are a few:

- Oklahoma State - Transylvania Station Halloween Carnival draws 3,000 kids/parents each yr.
- Iowa State - VEISHEA Can Drive - collects thousands of pounds of food for food banks.
- Missouri - FarmHouse Final Four - raises money and does service work for a local children's home.

Social Development

FarmHouse is not all about studying though - our members know how to cut loose and have a good (yet responsible) time also. These are but a few of the social functions our chapters look forward to each year:

- Halloween Socials
- Formal
- Dinner and a Movie
- Mystery Dates
- Hayrides
- Etiquette Dinners
- Barn Parties
- Date Dashes
- Spring Parties
- Crawfish Boils
- Band Parties
- Sorority Exchanges

Brotherhood

Aside from the social life, FarmHouse chapters put a lot of emphasis on building strong bonds of brotherhood between members. That's often accomplished through weekly brothers-only events and events such as:

- Float/canoe trips
- Holiday Skiing trips
- Paint Ball
- All-chapter retreats
- Hunting/fishing trips
- Spring break excursions
- Camping trips

