

Katharine Ott, University of Kentucky, Spectral Properties of Singular Integral Operators

Abstract: In this talk I will discuss the well-posedness of several elliptic boundary value problems (BVP) in non-smooth domains. This analysis relies on a careful inspection of the spectra of layer potential operators naturally associated with the BVP via Mellin transform techniques. The talk will be accessible to graduate students.